Trinity College, London's

Courses in English Elocution and Communication Skills

Dear Parents,

All for kids', an institution that trains for the courses of Trinity College of London, is conducting classes in Elocution, Speech & Drama and Communication skills at the school. Almost all the students of all for kids who attended these classes scored a Merit or a Distinction at the examination of Trinity College, London.

Students are trained in various aspects of Elocution such as Performing text, reading, narration, recitation, improvisation and skits. This programme enhances your child's skills in communication, improves their diction, pronunciation, vocabulary and expression.

This course gives your child a unique opportunity to appear for the Grade examinations that are held after completing training. Certificates for the same are recognized the world over.

Session is commencing at Queen Mary School from 13th June 2018 during school hours.

Fees: While the normal Fee is Rs. 7000 p.a., our school students would have the benefit of paying only Rs. 1975/- for the full academic year by Cheque favouring "CMEF Trust Queen Mary School – General A/c". Course fee is to be paid to the respective Class Teacher by 29th June, 2018.
